City of Atlanta Celebrates New Splash Pad

ATLANTA – The public is invited to join in an old school community celebration for the grand opening of Splash Island at Adams Park, 1620 Delowe Drive.

Atlanta City Councilmember Keisha Lance Bottoms will be there for the official grand opening of Atlanta's newest water attraction.

Mayor Kasim Reed, Councilmember Bottoms, the Department of Parks and Recreation, and Carnival Cruise Line will celebrate the opening at 11:00 a.m. Tuesday, June 21.

Splash Island features a spray pool, water cannons, a dumping water bucket, new lifeguard chairs, and deck space for large crowds.

The event will be emceed by former Atlanta Hawks player Dominique Wilkins. There will also be a live remote from Hip-Hop station Boom 102.9 with Ed Lover.

The Adams Park splash pad is the City of Atlanta's sixth spray pool.

For more information, please call Councilmember Bottoms' office at (404) 330-6054.
